Blueeyedboy | Joanne Harris Blueeyedboy goes further, in that B.B. has chosen to create, not only an alternate identity, but a whole alternate existence, past and present, designed, not just to fool other people, but to fool himself, too. In fact, in this book, no-one is quite as they appear; identities are interchangeable, and can be assumed and discarded when necessary. Joanne Harris - Blueeyedboy: About the Book Setting her story in the same town as her St Oswald's novels, though in a far less privileged neighbourhood, Joanne Harris invites us to come down the rabbit hole of internet anonymity, where everyone wears avatars and usernames, and no one is quite what they seem.
