Would Have Been Enough”) is a song traditionally sung during the telling of the story of Exodus at the Passover Seder. The song’s stanzas list a series of kindnesses God performed for the Jewish people during and after the Exodus and concludes each with the word dayenu — “it would have been enough.” Dayenu: It Would Have Been Enough | My Jewish Learning Dayenu (“it would have sufficed us”) is a song of gratitude sung toward the end of Maggid, when the story of the Exodus is recounted during the Passover Seder. In each stanza, we recall another kindness that G-d performed for our ancestors and proclaim that it alone would have been reason for celebration. Dayenu - "It would

Song

Sing Dayenu | PJ Library Dayenu is a song that is part of the Jewish holiday of Passover. The word "dayenu" means approximately "it would have been enough", "it would have been sufficient", or "it would have sufficed". This traditional upbeat Passover song is over one thousand years old. The earliest full text of the song occurs in the first medieval haggadah, which is part of the ninth-century Seder Rav Amram. The song is about being grateful to God for all of the gifts he gave the Jewish people, such as taking them o Dayenu -
