In Order Overall, First Position was tightly written and sharply edited. I noticed a real honing of the language. Favorite words and phrasings were significantly reduced when compared with Brayden's previous novels. But Brayden's unique voice as an author was not lost in any way.
Instead, I think it was more clearly revealed. REVIEW: First Position by Melissa Brayden - Frivolous

Views OK, I am a bit of a Melissa Brayden fan. So I am a wee bit biased. Anyhow, I loved First Position. As all the other books, it very well written and simply makes you smile. It's an engaging love story, placed in NYC again, and as you probably gather from the title, it's all about ballet dancers. First Position (Audio Download): Melissa Brayden, Katrina ...
