House On Mango Street Grade The House on Mango Street is Sandra Cisneros' first major work. Even though she periodically wrote poems and stories throughout her childhood and adolescence, it was not until she attended the University of Iowa's Writers Workshop in the late 1970s that she realized her experiences as a Latina woman were unique and outside the realm of dominant American culture. House on Mango Street Study Guide |

GradeSaver Importantly, The House on Mango Street is a deeper dive into the Mexican-American experience, which students began studying in the fifth grade with Julia Alvarez's Return to Sender. While Esperanza does not explicitly discuss what it means to be a second generation immigrant, students will read between the lines in order to continue their study of American identity.
