Judgment Of Mars Starships Mage At it's core, Starship's Mage is hard sci fi. The physics are all correct, the weapons and ships realistic, all the capabilities are correct. What Steward then does is, when ever he needs more fantastical elements, rather than make up some techno babble reason for it, he just places it in the magic category. Judgment of Mars (Starship's Mage, #5) by Glynn Stewart Judgement of Mars is book five in the Starship Mage series and it does not disappoint. It is filled with the nail biting adventure that readers of this series have come to expect. What I loved most about this book in the series, however, is the way the author has drawn together events from earlier books in the series and shown that they were not individual isolated events, but parts of a larger, more complex tapestry.
