SuccessFactors Performance and Goals Management Although parts of a SuccessFactors instance can be configured via OneAdmin (the administration part), the configuration is done via Provisioning. Only consultants and individuals who have completed Mastery training have access to Provisioning and they must apply to SuccessFactors to have their customer's instance linked to their Provisioning

Configuration - SAP Q&A For many customers and consultants it has been difficult to get a full understanding of how the configuration landscape of SuccessFactors differs from SAP HCM. Many customers have concerns about Provisioning and the role it plays in setting up the SuccessFactors instance due to the access being limited only to trained SuccessFactors consultants. Due to the different designs of the systems they do not share the same methods of setup and configuration. Configuring SAP HCM & SuccessFactors: A Comparison | SAP Blogs SAP SuccessFactors.
