death toll ... As Smithsonian recounts, the Iroquois Theater disaster remains the deadliest urban fire in U.S. history, even if only a minority of those killed actually died from smoke inhalation. The real dangerous thing that day were the fire exits. Because patrons from the cheap seats had a habit of sneaking down into the good seats mid-performance, the Iroquois' management had barred most exits off. The biggest disasters in American history you forgot The estimated death toll of the Civil War still trumps all other military conflicts on the list, and may even be higher than the 1918 flu pandemic death toll in the U.S., as some scholars think ...
