Written with balance and compassion, The Atonement Child... The Atonement Child by Francine Rivers - Books on Google Play Although I found The Atonement Child a bit clichéd, a bit happily-ever-after, and a bit preachy, overall, I enjoyed this work. Rivers tackled a controversial subject - rape, abortion and the church's response. I thought she did an excellent job writing about this, saying what she believes, but not doing so in an abrasive manner. ... You can literally eat, drink and sleep with eBooks if you visit the Project Gutenberg website.
